

STATE OF THE ART / ART OF THE STATE

September 20, 2014 – February 12, 2015

Organized by the Cameron Art Museum, this exhibition focuses on contemporary art by artists currently living in, or native to, the state of North Carolina. Artists were invited to bring a single work of art to be installed in the museum, delivering the work within a 24-hour period (between 12:00 p.m. Friday, September 19 and 12:00 p.m. Saturday, September 20, 2014). During this timeframe, a nationally renowned curator was present to greet each artist. The design of this project provided participating artists equal opportunity to meet a significant curator working in the field of contemporary art today and have their work seen by all visiting curators. 657 artists from across the state participated in this event.

Participating curators were: Nora Burnett Abrams, Associate Curator at the Museum of Contemporary Art Denver (MCA Denver), Denver, CO; Peter Eleey, Curator and Associate Director of Exhibitions and Programs at MoMA PS1, New York, NY; Laura Hoptman, Curator in the Department of Painting and Sculpture at The Museum of Modern Art (MoMA), New York, NY; Heidi Zuckerman Jacobson, the Nancy and Bob Magoon CEO and Director, Aspen Art Museum, Aspen, CO.

This event pays homage to the open, creative curatorial spirit of the late art world maverick, Walter Hopps (1932-2005). In 1978, responding to a comment from his junior colleague, Deborah Velders (Jensen) about the problems artists face gaining access to notable curators, Walter Hopps conceived an entirely open, unmediated event to remedy the situation. His program invited any artist to bring a single work of art, to meet Hopps, and see installation of work. This event called “36 Hours” occurred in a gritty, street-level alternative space called MOTA (Museum of Temporary Art), located in downtown Washington, D.C. There was no jurying, no selection (or rejection), and no entry fee. The only restrictions were size, weight, and the delivery time frame (36 hours). This unprecedented opportunity for artists was covered by the Washington Post, and attracted over 400 works of art, all by artists living and working in the Washington, D.C. area.

The first State of the Art / Art of the State was held at the Cameron Art Museum on May 6 – May 7, 2011 and was on view through October 29, 2011. 614 artists participated in this installation representing areas across the state of North Carolina. Curators for this event included: Susan Davidson, Senior Curator, Collections & Exhibitions, Solomon R. Guggenheim Museum, New York; Nicholas Cullinan, Curator of International Modern Art at Tate Modern, London; Apsara Di Quinzio, Assistant curator of painting and sculpture at the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art; Timothy Anglin Burgard: The Ednah Root Curator of American Art and the Curator-in-Charge of the American Art Department for the Fine Arts Museums of San Francisco.

This exhibition is generously sponsored in part by the City of Wilmington, Thomas S. Kenan, III Foundation, Williams Mullen and an Anonymous Donor

2014 Participating Curators

Nora Burnett Abrams: Associate Curator at the Museum of Contemporary Art Denver (MCA Denver), Denver, CO. Abrams has organized many exhibitions at MCA Denver, ranging from solo presentations of Paul Sietsema, Adrian Ghenie, Tatiana Blass, and Dario Robleto, to large-scale group exhibitions such as Postscript: Writing After Conceptual Art and Another Victory Over the Sun. In addition to her work with MCA Denver, Abrams has worked with the Metropolitan Museum of Art, the Museum of Modern Art (MoMA), New York, and the Grey Art Gallery, at New York University. She has assisted with significant exhibitions such as Matisse Picasso at MoMA and Robert Rauschenberg: Combines at the Metropolitan Museum of Art. She earned her M.A. from Columbia University and is completing her dissertation at the Institute of Fine Arts at NYU. Abrams has taught art history at NYU and lectured throughout the country on modern and contemporary art.

Peter Eleey: Curator and Associate Director of Exhibitions and Programs at MoMA PS1, New York, NY. Since joining MoMA PS1 in July 2010, Eleey has organized 16 exhibitions at the museum, including premiere presentations of Ed Atkins, Matt Connors, Darren Bader, Esther Kläs, and Metahaven, as well as acclaimed surveys of Huma Bhabha, Lara Favaretto, George Kuchar, Thomas Lanigan-Schmidt and Henry Taylor (with MoMA curator Laura Hoptman). He also curated September 11, a group exhibition organized on the occasion of the tenth anniversary of the terrorist attacks in 2011. Eleey coordinated MoMA PS1's expanded presentation of the Mike Kelley retrospective currently on view, which is the largest solo show in MoMA PS1's history, occupying the museum's entire building. He most recently co-organized James Lee Byars: ½ an Autobiography on view at the new Museo Jumex in Mexico City, which travels to MoMA PS1 in June. His upcoming projects include a survey of the Austrian painter Maria Lassnig, as well as a retrospective of Sturtevant that will open at The Museum of Modern Art in November 2014. From 2007 through 2010, Eleey was Visual Arts Curator at the Walker Art Center in Minneapolis, where he organized exhibitions with Trisha Brown and Goshka Macuga, along with the group shows The Quick and the Dead and The Talent Show. Before joining the Walker, he was a curator and producer at Creative Time.

Laura Hoptman: Curator in the Department of Painting and Sculpture at The Museum of Modern Art (MoMA), New York, NY. Since joining the museum she has organized Ecstatic Alphabets/Heaps of Language, a group exhibition of contemporary art, Carol Bove: The Equinox; Artist's Choice: Trisha Donnelly, a mid career survey of the work of the Los Angeles painter Henry Taylor at MoMA/PS1 (with Peter Eleey) and Isa Genzken: Retrospective (with Sabine Breitwieser). Previously, she was Senior Curator at the New Museum where she organized Unmonumental: The Object in the 21st Century, The Generational: Younger Than Jesus and monographic exhibitions on Tomma Abts, Elizabeth Peyton, Brion Gysin and George Condo. In 2004-05 she was the director of the 54th Carnegie International, and in an earlier incarnation as a drawing curator at MoMA from 1996 to 2002, she curated the first U.S. museum exhibitions of Rirkrit Tiravanija, Maurizio Cattelan, John Currin, and Luc Tuymans among others. In 1997, at MoMA she was the co curator (with Lynn Zelevansky) of Love Forever: Yayoi Kusama, a show that reintroduced Kusama to international audiences and in 2002, she organized Drawing Now: Eight Propositions, a landmark exhibition of contemporary figurative drawing. Currently, Hoptman is organizing a group exhibition on the subject of contemporary painting, and a mid career survey of the Cologne artist Kai Althoff. She is also part of the curatorial team organizing a retrospective of the work of Bruce Conner.

Heidi Zuckerman Jacobson: Nancy and Bob Magoon CEO and Director, Aspen Art Museum, Aspen, CO. She joined the Aspen Art Museum (AAM) as Director and Chief Curator in 2005. In this position, she continues to be charged with oversight of all aspects of the museum's guiding vision and mission, strategic planning, administrative policy and decision-making endeavors, and the institution's curatorial and educational programmatic practices. Zuckerman Jacobson's curatorial projects at the AAM include major one-person exhibitions with Yutaka Sone, Pedro Reyes, Jeremy Deller, Aïda Ruilova, Friedrich Kunath, Mai-Thu Perret, Lisa Anne Auerbach, Jim Hodges, Peter Coffin, Fred Tomaselli, Mark Bradford, Sergej Jensen, Mamma Andersson, Stephen Shore, Huma Bhabha, Slater Bradley, Mark Grotjahn, Lucio Fontana, Monika Sosnowska, Rob Pruitt, Hayley Tompkins, Lorna Simpson and others - many in their first major U.S. museum exhibitions or featuring important but lesser-known aspects of their artistic practice. Her exhibitions with Aïda Ruilova, Fred Tomaselli, and Sergej Jensen, as well as her co-curated exhibition Mark Manders: Parallel Occurrences / Documented Assignments, have traveled to other major museums including, The Hammer Museum, MoMA PS1, The Walker Art Center, Dallas Museum of Art, CAM Saint Louis, The Banff Center (Canada), and the Brooklyn Museum.
